A Tale of Two Pies

by Kim Amboy

Every year on March 14th, math fans celebrate Pi Day. They will tell you that Pi (3.14) is a very famous number having to do with circles and circumferences. Unfortunately, I've never had a head for numbers...but I do have a taste for PIE! And most pies are circles anyway, right? Happily, Pi Day can be a big day for math fans and pie connoisseurs alike.

Back in the 80's, I smugly considered myself to be a pretty good pie maker. But my baking ego quickly deflated when I married my husband and acquired a mother-in-law from Missouri whose baking reputation preceded her. Alberta Joyce doesn't just bake a pie; she creates pastry masterpieces of all sorts and lines them up on her counter in true smorgasbord fashion. Always filling her amazingly flakey and beautifully fluted crusts with pure, bubbling decadence, she has continued through the decades to outshine my own meager efforts to fill her giant, pie-baking shoes. C'est la vie.

Yet pie doesn't have to be perfect to be delicious. A lopsided crust or a sunken top still tastes yummy with every bite (ask me how I know). Additionally, savory pies prove that it's not just for dessert. Meat pies and pot pies have long been practical, hearty meals, and The Grill at Waterford, 13548 Waterford Pl in Midlothian, boasts a wonderful chicken pot pie served bubbling hot. Interestingly, back in the 1840's in the mining regions of up- >>> per Michigan, a Cornish version of a thick crusted hand pie was commonly found in miners' dinner pails and heated on a shovel held over a candle. Pretty clever!

This discussion wouldn't be complete without mentioning PIZZA! The term pizza "pie" comes from the early 20th century when Italian immigrants described the circular, baked dish in a way that Americans could relate to. The term stuck and the rest is gastronomic history! Locally, La Cucina 11440 W. Huguenot Rd in Midlothian offers several varieties of authentic gourmet pizza, including Bianco, Bruschetta, Mediterranean, and Fig & Pig... all made using the finest and freshest ingredients.

So, which pie is your favorite? Is it savory or sweet--pecan...apple...or another kind of fruit? While all of those are amazing, this girl will always choose custard if it's available (but, sadly, custard is not often on the menu). In any event, whether you're a math lover or a pastry aficionado, Pi Day in March is always a great excuse to indulge in whatever variety strikes your fancy. Grab a fork and dig in!

Northern Neck on Chesapeake Bay—A Day Trip to Remember

by Kim Amboy

Are you itching for a little change of scenery but don't want to drive for hours to get there? Then pile the gang in your jalopy and take the relatively short jaunt out to the Northern Neck communities near Chesapeake Bay. With the temps climbing back into the pleasant range, and the yellow petals of forsythia peeking out from their tiny buds, it's a delightful time to kick around the area, do some shopping, have a meal, learn some history, and savor the gorgeous springtime views along the shore. In case you're up for the drive, I'd like to recommend a few points of interest you might enjoy.

Known for its waterfront charm and coastal lifestyle, the small, quaint community of Irvington, Virginia is not even two square miles in size. Situated on the eastern banks of Carter's Creek near the Rappahannock River, it was once a steamboat landing for ships from Baltimore, Norfolk, and elsewhere in the 1800's. Nowadays, travelers are drawn to its charming shops, inns and seafood. The Office Bistro in Irvington is a popular, upscale eatery with a unique and whimsical exterior--the porch pillars are toothbrushes! Its excellent food, elegant seating, and exceptional service make this a must-stop along your way. You'll leave stuffed, I guarantee it!

Less than five country miles from Irvington is Kilmarnock, an adorable little slice of Americana on the Rappahannock River. Brimming with history and wonderfully old architecture, the community's quaint downtown and surrounding areas have much to offer spring travelers, from art galleries and museums to clothing boutiques, home decor, and gift shops. Or take in the views from the cozy atmosphere at Good Luck Cellars (a winery on the Chesapeake Bay Wine Trail) while enjoying a little music and wine tasting.

Have binoculars handy for a spring hike through the secluded forests, marshes, and shoreline at Hughlett Point Preserve just fifteen minutes out of town. This small peninsula on the Bay's western shore is an incredibly beautiful and peaceful spot that is sure to inspire artists and nature observers aplenty. The gentle sounds of wind and water, along with the spring melodies of songbirds, create a charming atmosphere where visitors often see raptors, shorebirds, and waterfowl, as well as deer, raccoons, and turtles. Shore walkers should keep their eyes peeled for sand tracks...finding giant bear prints is a real thrill!

This delightful, jam-packed trip to the little towns near the Bay is certainly time well-spent. Do clear some space on your calendar this spring and have your own Northern Neck adventure. The memories you make will be priceless.

Print has Tangibility & Engagement: Cutting Through the Digital Noise...

Digital platforms are saturated with advertisements, leading to "banner blindness" where consumers unconsciously ignore most online ads. In contrast, localized print and direct mail offer a physical, tangible experience

Print Gives You... Reduced Competition so to be less distracted

VEGETARIAN CHILI

What's better than a steaming bowl of chili to warm up on a chilly winter evening? This particular vegetarian chili recipe has been in Suzanne's family for over 35 years. It all started on one of the very first dates she had with her now husband, Elliott. He was not too sure about vegetarian chili, but would do anything for a date with Suzanne. They enjoyed a bowl at Grace Place in downtown Richmond and after its closing, she was on a quest to find her own recipe. We hope you enjoy at as much as they have over the years! Cindy
