SIX ON 6

There's some mighty fine eating along Route 6 from Goochland Courthouse into the Western tip of Henrico County. If you haven't visited all of these half-a-dozen highway hotspots, which sit right on River Road/Patterson Avenue, we encourage you to check 'em out. We'll start in the Courthouse and eat our way eastward.

The Goochland Restaurant (2966 River Road, West) has been serving up great grub for breakfast and lunch for about 75 years now. Madisen, my server, tells me she's been working there for about a year and she loves it. Her favorite dish? Without hesitation, she replies, "The French toast, hands down. Have it for breakfast or lunch. It's actually imported from France." Other favorites include the All-Beefer Platter (two Nathan's hot dogs topped with mustard and coleslaw, sausage gravy with biscuits, and a thick-sliced bologna burger).

Courthouse Café (2962 River Road, West) sits virtually next door. Lauren, who works the front counter, asked if she could consult with Amin (the owner) and Ashley (in the kitchen) when I asked her for a top menu pick. The unanimous answer: The Italian cold cut. Believe me, there are lots of great sandwiches on the menu, including my favorite, the Reuben. Lauren also tells me that "Amin makes his own pizza from scratch and it's delicious."

On the eastern edge of town, you'll find Bella Sicilia (2913 River Road West). For 14 years, owners and brothers-in-law Max and Sal have been delighting diners with authentic Italian fare. When asked for a menu favorite, Max recommends their lasagna. "It's a classic," he says, adding that the chicken Marsala is also great. Check their Facebook page to learn about the occasional wine-pairing dinners which they host.

Heading east, our next stop is Tanglewood Ordinary (2210 River Road West), which celebrated its 40th anniversary in May. Owned by Anne and Jim Hardwick, this quaint, historic restaurant serves up Sunday Dinner Friday through Sunday. Feast on bowls and platters filled with Southern comfort foods such as fried chicken, ham, mac and cheese, mashed potatoes, coleslaw, >>>

Just a mile over the county line, in Henrico, you'll find Shoreline Seafood Market (10614 Patterson Ave). Enjoy fresh seafood served to-go, in the market, or dine on delicacies from around the world in the restaurant. Manager Greg Hollis says the market's mission is to serve the freshest possible seafood along with a personalized dining and shopping experience. "We are like a family here," he says of both the staff and guests. For a recommendation, try the homemade crab cakes.

Our final stop is the venerable Rare Olde Times (10602 Patterson Ave), just a few doors down in the Canterbury Shopping Center. For over 30 years, West Enders have been enjoying authentic Irish pub fare, such as Burgers and Mash and Shepherd's Pie, which are served up along with a healthy dose of live, local music. Sunday Brunch (10 a.m. 'til 3 p.m. on Sundays) features a full Irish breakfast.

Dawn Bradbury Designs — Local Fashion Designer Hits the Runway

by Kim Amboy

A series of beautiful models draped in colorful, flowing silks strut down a prestigious South Florida fashion runway. Each is wearing a beautifully designed kaftan that moves gracefully with each step, drawing applause from the well-dressed audience at the end of the show. This happy event is the designer's first public showcase highlighting her creations--a significant milestone in her lifelong enthusiasm for fashion and design.

It's the story of a local girl in the midst of achieving her dreams--none other than longtime Powhatan resident, Dawn Bradbury!

The road Dawn has traveled is full of twists and turns. As a young girl, she was drawn into the world of fashion while perusing the pages of Vogue magazine. Her fascination wasn't just with the appearance of the garments; she wanted to learn every detail about their creation. So, on her own, she researched leading designers and, for a time, even had the opportunity to learn all aspects of the industry while working for high-end designer, Nicole Miller. However, with a daughter to raise and bills to pay, necessity dictated she set her dreams aside and take a series of regular jobs to cover expenses. In the meantime, this designing diva and her husband, Jason, oversaw and designed many elements of the architecture and decor of their own home, prompting visitors (impressed with what they saw) to urge her to pursue design as a career. That encouragement, and a friend's sudden tragedy reminded her how short life can be. She quit her 9-to-5 career and hit the ground running. That was four years ago.

After much deliberation and prayer, Dawn began creating an opulent line of jewel-toned decor pillows and purses made from the finest materials she could source, importing Italian Nappa leather, ostrich skins and feathers, exotic snake skins, and iridescent peacock feathers, to name a few. After reaching out to the president of HGTV and receiving valuable marketing tips and advice, she began offering her pieces in the Dallas market but with limited success. Still, this small-town girl did not give up. After pounding the South Florida pavement with her own luxurious resort collection of washable silk kaftans, dresses, and tops, Ms. Bradbury impressed several boutique owners enough to carry her line in their prestigious shops across multiple states, including the Ritz-Carlton in Sarasota. Finally, she was on her way!

It was at this time our tenacious local girl received the invitation to be featured in the Palm Beach Fashion Week runway show hosted at Mar-a-Lago (mentioned at the outset). Since then, a few celebrities have shown interest in her designs. Dawn's lovely creations are available in Luna Lotus Boutique on the island of Aruba, and even locally at Sassy Sisters in Farmville. And the list is growing.

Ms. Bradbury loves the Caribbean, loud prints, and animals—all of which are reflected in her work. Every bright and bold pillow, purse, and flashy garment she creates is backed by extensive research and careful planning. Instead of outsourcing production to foreign factories, Dawn has stuck close to her roots--everything is made right here in the Richmond area. She employs skilled local artisans and seamstresses to handcraft each piece with exceptional quality.

Surprisingly, with all her recent success, this lovely lady isn't showing any signs of slowing down. Just recently she was handed an UNBELIEVABLE opportunity: she was invited to be featured in the high-end runway show held during Monaco Fashion Days, an exclusive event that takes place during the Cannes Film Festival, where she won the title of Newest Fashion Designer of the Year. She has also been invited to both Milan and Paris Fashion Weeks, which take place in September. A new chapter of this happy saga is about to be written. Who knows how it might end? With much success, I suspect! (www.dawnbradburydesign.com)

Grilled Burgers with Special Sauce

Summer is the season for grilling. However, no two burgers are alike. Everyone has their own creative approach to the perfect burger. Regardless of your preferences, get outside and enjoy a little grilling. Cindy

INGREDIENTS:

Burgers:

- 1 lb ground beef
- 2-3 cloves of garlic, finely minced
- ¼ tsp paprika
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Butter
- Hamburger buns
- Lettuce
- Tomato
- Grilled onions
- Provolone cheese

Special Sauce:

- ½ cup mayonnaise
- 1 tbsp ketchup
- 1 tsp mustard
- 1 tsp sweet relish
- ½ tsp each paprika, garlic powder, and onion powder

DIRECTIONS:

Combine all ingredients for special sauce together and leave in refrigerator to chill. Mix together ground beef, garlic, paprika, salt, and pepper until well combined and shape into four patties. Grill to your preference. When burgers are almost done, add butter to your buns and apply face down on the grill. Once hamburgers and buns are finished, top with ingredients and special sauce.
