Taco Day, Hip Hip Hooray!

by Kim Amboy

All hail the lowly taco! Each is stuffed with humble fillings wrapped in soft corn or flour tortillas, or even a hard, crunchy shell. While not fancy, they always deliver big taste and limitless variety with every bite, making them affordably addictive. Fill them with savory meats, cheese, and whatever else your heart desires, and you've got an amazingly delicious, handheld meal that needs no utensils—who needs a fork anyway? And everybody knows tacos are a great morale booster, too. Think of the stuff that drips down your arm as essential oils, right? Well...maybe. What prompts me to broach this mouthwatering subject? Let's "taco" about it...

The word "taco" likely comes from Mexican silver miners in the 18th century who used paper-wrapped gunpowder charges that looked a lot like the food in their lunches. By 1914, recipes for tacos appeared in a U.S. cookbook, helping launch their rise as an « American favorite. Personally, I'm part of the crowd that only eats tacos on days that end in "Y". So, knowing the first Tuesday of every October is appointed National Taco Day, is great news! Keep an eye out for restaurant deals and app drops offering special discounts in honor of this favorite south-of-the-border treat. Now that you've been properly schooled on this mouthwatering subject, it's got to be time to eat! So, always remember: When life gives you lemons, give them back--you deserve tacos! Gather your friends and order some today.

Plaza Azteca - 11500 Busy St., North Chesterfield. "Your shortcut to Mexico!" Plaza Azteca is a laidback spot for south-of-the-border eats, including tacos, drinks, and fun. Its extensive taco menu includes tacos de Camaron stuffed with grilled shrimp, plus fantastic fish, pollo, or carne asada tacos. Everything is always delicious and generously portioned, and the service can't be beat.

El Cerro Azul - 2650 Anderson Hwy., Powhatan. With its festive décor and cozy atmosphere, El Cerro Azul is a Powhatan favorite. Guests receive the royal treatment and enjoy attentive service, authentic food, and standout menu items like birria tacos, street tacos, and more. Pair your meal with a refreshing margarita, and Azul might quickly become a weekly tradition.

El Jinete - 1795 S Creek One, Powhatan. This clean, casual hangout serves traditional and authentic eats and refreshing drinks and has become a regular haunt for families and friends who love large portions of delicious "comida Mexicana!" All your favorite tacos are on their extensive menu, offering excellent value whether you dine in or order takeout. Bring the family and satisfy your taco craving at El Jinete.

Dawn Bradbury Designs — Local Fashion Designer Hits the Runway

by Kim Amboy

A series of beautiful models draped in colorful, flowing silks strut down a prestigious South Florida fashion runway. Each is wearing a beautifully designed kaftan that moves gracefully with each step, drawing applause from the well-dressed audience at the end of the show. This happy event is the designer's first public showcase highlighting her creations--a significant milestone in her lifelong enthusiasm for fashion and design.

It's the story of a local girl in the midst of achieving her dreams--none other than longtime Powhatan resident, Dawn Bradbury!

The road Dawn has traveled is full of twists and turns. As a young girl, she was drawn into the world of fashion while perusing the pages of Vogue magazine. Her fascination wasn't just with the appearance of the garments; she wanted to learn every detail about their creation. So, on her own, she researched leading designers and, for a time, even had the opportunity to learn all aspects of the industry while working for high-end designer, Nicole Miller. However, with a daughter to raise and bills to pay, necessity dictated she set her dreams aside and take a series of regular jobs to cover expenses. In the meantime, this designing diva and her husband, Jason, oversaw and designed many elements of the architecture and decor of their own home, prompting visitors (impressed with what they saw) to urge her to pursue design as a career. That encouragement, and a friend's sudden tragedy reminded her how short life can be. She quit her 9-to-5 career and hit the ground running. That was four years ago.

After much deliberation and prayer, Dawn began creating an opulent line of jewel-toned decor pillows and purses made from the finest materials she could source, importing Italian Nappa leather, ostrich skins and feathers, exotic snake skins, and iridescent peacock feathers, to name a few. After reaching out to the president of HGTV and receiving valuable marketing tips and advice, she began offering her pieces in the Dallas market but with limited success. Still, this small-town girl did not give up. After pounding the South Florida pavement with her own luxurious resort collection of washable silk kaftans, dresses, and tops, Ms. Bradbury impressed several boutique owners enough to carry her line in their prestigious shops across multiple states, including the Ritz-Carlton in Sarasota. Finally, she was on her way!

It was at this time our tenacious local girl received the invitation to be featured in the Palm Beach Fashion Week runway show hosted at Mar-a-Lago (mentioned at the outset). Since then, a few celebrities have shown interest in her designs. Dawn's lovely creations are available in Luna Lotus Boutique on the island of Aruba, and even locally at Sassy Sisters in Farmville. And the list is growing.

Ms. Bradbury loves the Caribbean, loud prints, and animals—all of which are reflected in her work. Every bright and bold pillow, purse, and flashy garment she creates is backed by extensive research and careful planning. Instead of outsourcing production to foreign factories, Dawn has stuck close to her roots--everything is made right here in the Richmond area. She employs skilled local artisans and seamstresses to handcraft each piece with exceptional quality.

Surprisingly, with all her recent success, this lovely lady isn't showing any signs of slowing down. Just recently she was handed an UNBELIEVABLE opportunity: she was invited to be featured in the high-end runway show held during Monaco Fashion Days, an exclusive event that takes place during the Cannes Film Festival, where she won the title of Newest Fashion Designer of the Year. She was also invited to New York, Paris and Milan Fashion Weeks, all of which took place in September. She's actually living her dream. A new chapter of this happy saga is about to be written. Who knows how it might end? With much success, I suspect! (www.dawnbradburydesign.com)

Cottage Cheese Chicken Enchiladas

Imagine the aroma of sizzling peppers and onions, the Mexican spices that flavor your favorite meat, or fresh cilantro and lime that pairs perfectly with a smooth or chunky guacamole. Don't let the name of this lighter take on an enchilada fool you. For many years it has been a popular family dish for my friend Valusia. It's cheesy and flavorful with just a little kick. So, if you can't make it to your favorite Mexican restaurant, hopefully this will tide you over.

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 c. Shredded Chicken
- 1 tbsp. Olive Oil
- ½ c. Chopped Onion
- 1 (7 oz.) Can Chopped Green Chili Peppers
- 1 (1 oz.) Package Taco Seasoning Mix
- ½ c. Sour Cream
- 2 c. Cottage Cheese
- ½ tsp. Salt
- Pinch of Pepper
- 2 c. Shredded Monterey Jack and Colby Cheese Blend
- 1 (10 oz.) Can Red Enchilada Sauce
- 12 (6 inch) Corn Tortillas

DIRECTIONS:

Sauté onions and chili peppers in oil. Add chicken and prepare taco seasoning according to package directions and pour over chicken mixture. Simmer for a few minutes until water has evaporated and set aside. Mix sour cream with cottage cheese and season with salt and pepper. In each tortilla place a spoonful of meat mixture and a spoonful of cheese mixture with a bit of shredded cheese. Place each rolled tortilla in a greased 9x13 baking dish. Top with remaining meat and cheese mixture, enchilada sauce and remaining shredded cheese. Bake at 350 for 20-30 minutes until cheese is melted and bubbly.
